PARADE RULES & REGULATIONS

Judging:

Judging is done as your unit passes through designated judging area. A panel of judges will be looking for three areas of perfection: THEME, APPEARANCE and ORIGINALITY. If you want your float to be judged, it must be stated on your completed application. No commercial advertisement on judged floats. ABSOLUTELY NO STOPPING TO DO ROUTINES!! The total scores will be tallied, and the final score will determine the awards. Awards will be announced that night at the Festival Grounds on the Redbank Transport Stage at 9:30 pm.

Decorated vehicles do not qualify as floats and cannot have the application fee waived or be judged in the float category.

Awards: First Place $150.00
 Second Place $100.00
 Third Place $75.00

NOTICE: ABSOLUTELY NOTHING IS TO BE THROWN OR PASSED OUT.

Due to the increased danger of children and adults being hurt by moving vehicles and lack of understanding by entrants of the dangers, parade participants will no longer be able to distribute or pass anything out during and along the parade route. This is for the safety of all involved. As an alternative we will provide a staging area at the festival grounds for parade participants to distribute handouts upon the completion of their participation in the parade.

Absolutely no stopping for any reason unless directed by police or other official. Walking/performing Units must keep up. Violators will be asked to leave the parade immediately. Sport Teams are encouraged to ride on a truck or trailer. Special Requests will be considered on an individual basis.

THE USE OF SIRENS IS PROHIBITED.

ABSOLUTELY NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ALLOWED ON VECHILES OR FLOATS.
Violators will be immediately eliminated from parade.

MUSIC WOULD BE APPRECIATED.

NOTE: The Frontier Days Committee reserves the right to determine if any entry is appropriate and to grant them parade space. The Frontier Days Committee also reserves the right to determine at what entry level a participant is to be charged. The Frontier Days Parade Committee, reserves the right to place any parade participant any where in the parade line-up at any time. All participants are expected to police their line-up area for garbage before the start of the parade.

The completed application should be returned to our office no later than May 8, 2009 along with the signed waiver and entry fee. A Parade Position number will be assigned to you after May 28, 2009. If your entry is not accepted, it will be returned to you by mail.

It is your responsibility to make sure your parade application was received at the MMTCC Office.

When you receive your Parade Number please display it on the left front of your entry, this includes marching units. Thank you for your entry and your cooperation.
